This exhibition charts a path through 25 years of history at the Synagogue de Delme, an art centre that is unusual, no less for its geographic location than for its history, a precious and rare art venue for artists from around the world, whom it has never stopped welcoming. Assemblée brings together around twenty of the artists who have exhibited at Delme, as well as artists who have done Lidre-Basse residencies, which have been an integral part of the art centre's missions since 2002.

The exhibition embraces the whole range of practices, gestures and stories, echoing the artistic and intellectual lifeblood that has kept the Synagogue de Delme's heart beating for a quarter of a century.

The exhibition's title, Assemblée, refers to what the nature of the Synagogue de Delme has been since the beginning: a gathering place, an agora, a site of shared words and discussions, a polyphonic place where singularities meet. Assemblée also expresses the institution's goodwill towards its visitors and artists, for whom the art centre remains a home of thought, action and freedom.

The exhibition presents existing works as well as new productions, like the custom sound installation that Violaine Lochu designed for the site's acoustics, filling the space with the chanting of powerful, mystical female voices. And Capucine Vandebrouck is presenting two almost invisible installations that secretly disrupt the look of the place.

Voices, spirits, altered consciousness, byways, sinuous lines—the exhibition reflects other ways of looking and perceiving. Dominique Gilliot's work is hidden in the exhibition, Chloé Maillet and Louise Hervé's serial novel is inserted in the local newspaper, while Eva Taulois's work is worn around the neck. Some works question the economics of relations between artists, viewers and modes of production: the gift and counter-gift in the case of Katinka Bock, theft in that of Eva Barto, bankruptcy in that of Cool Balducci. From Rometti Costales's flag of magical anarchism to Yona Friedman's darkly humorous tale of democracy, to the revolutionary lyricism of Delphine Coindet's phylactery, the exhibition is ultimately an echo chamber of poetical forms of the political.

UPCOMING EXHIBITION

JEAN-LUC MOULÈNE

OPENING THURSDAY 7 JUNE 2018, 6PM

EXHIBITION FROM 8 JUNE 2018 TO 23 SEPTEMBER 2018

This exhibition is produced in collaboration with the Fondation d'entreprise Hermès.

"For more than twenty years, Jean-Luc Moulène has developed a complex body of work, both analytical and mysterious, of which photography has long constituted the most visible and best-known part. From the Disjunctions—a series of seemingly banal, frequently urban images that function as indeterminate topographical references at the heart of the real world—to the celebrated Objets de grève ('Strike objects': product shots of industrial artefacts made by striking workers, subverting the tools of their trade), Moulène's photographs are strikingly raw, cruel and uncompromising, but always secretly metaphorical.

Drawings and sculptural objects have always played a part in his work, but both have assumed greater importance in recent years, superseding photography to become the chief component of Moulène's most recent, large-scale exhibitions, though the essential spirit driving his distinctive oeuvre remains unchanged. Moulène's works explore the question of representation in his chosen media, while at the same time drawing on their essential physicality and materiality to engage tirelessly with political, social and ontological issues 'made flesh'—notably through the concept of 'transaction', an economically and sensitively charged term applied to the ongoing transaction between the imagination and reality."

L'HÉRITAGE DES SECRETS

SERIES OF THREE EXHIBITIONS

CONCEIVED BY THE CAC – SYNAGOGUE DE DELME

BY INVITATION OF THE FONDATION D'ENTREPRISE HERMÈS

HIPPOLYTE HENTGEN

EXHIBITION FROM 17 MARCH 2018 TO 20 MAI 2018

This solo exhibition of the French duo Hippolyte Hentgen at La Grande Place, musée du cristal Saint-Louis, in Saint-Louis-lès-Bitche (Moselle, France) is produced by the Fondation d'entreprise Hermès, as part of its continuing support for temporary exhibitions at the Foundation's own art spaces (in Brussels, Singapore, Seoul and Tokyo).

Each year, the Foundation presents two exhibitions of contemporary art at Saint-Louis, with a focus on artisanship and/or skilled expertise. Each season of three monographic or themed exhibitions is co-produced with a leading cultural institution in the Lorraine region, in association with the cristallerie Saint-Louis and La Grande Place, Musée du Cristal Saint-Louis. Following the inaugural and follow-up seasons, in partnership with the Centre Pompidou-Metz and 49 Nord 6 Est – Frac Lorraine (Metz), the Foundation has invited the Moselle-based contemporary arts centre - la synagogue de Delme to devise the third cycle of exhibitions.

Under the title L'héritage des secrets ('The heritage of secrets') Marie Cozette, director of CAC - la synagogue de Delme, has devised a series of three exhibitions exploring the historical, architectural, aesthetic, technical and human facets of the crystal workshops, over their four-hundred-year existence. As Marie Cozette explains: "The guest artists for the series – art duo Hippolyte Hentgen, Thu Van Tran, and Dominique Ghesquière – have immersed themselves in the unique world of the cristallerie, to create new works that seek to diffract meaning, just as crystal diffracts the light."

"For their exhibition at La Grande Place, musée du cristal Saint-Louis, artist duo Hippolyte Hentgen have created a panorama tailored to the scale of the setting. The visual and choral installation enters into the multi-faceted world of the cristallerie [...] Hippolyte Hentgen draws on a broad range of materials and means to pay a deceptively simple tribute to the multiplicity of gestures, expertise and techniques that attend the birth of each object manufactured at the workshops."

The Centre for contemporary Art in Delme is located in a former synagogue, built in an Oriental style in the late nineteenth century. Not least among its special features are a dome, an arcaded entryway decorated with latticework, and windows with geometric stained glass.

The synagogue was partly destroyed during the Second World War. The outer walls survived, but the interior was rebuilt along stricter lines after the war. The synagogue was permanently de-consecrated in the early 1980s for lack of sufficient numbers of worshippers. The first art exhibition was held in 1993.

The many artists who have exhibited in this unusual venue in the past twenty years, generating an identity and reputation for the art center both locally and internationally, include: François Morellet, Daniel Buren, Tadashi Kawamata, Ann Veronica Janssens, Peter Downsbrough, Marc Camille Chaimowicz, Katinka Bock, Julien Prévieux, Gianni Motti, Yona Friedman, Eric Baudelaire, Chloé Maillet and Louise Hervé, Erik Beltran, Marie Cool and Fabio Balducci, Susan Hiller, Clément Rodzielski ...

All have developed a special view of the venue by creating site specific works. In addition to three or four temporary shows presented in the former synagogue every year, the Delme art center manages an artist-in-residence program in the village of Lindre-Basse in the heart of the Lorraine regional park area.

The Delme synagogue, of modest size and located in a rural region of Lorraine, has always positioned itself as an art lab, a site of artistic exploration and production. The art center makes a concerted effort to establish a dialogue with all potential audiences, focusing on the local area.

Inaugurated on 22 September 2012, Gue(ho)st House is an architecture-sculpture made out of an existing building. It offers visitor reception spaces dedicated to mediation and documentation, and allows everyone to prolong their visit to the exhibitions at the art centre.

It's signed by the artists Christophe Berdaguer and Marie Péjus.

La synagogue de Delme Centre for Contemporary Art is a member of DCA-Association pour le Développement des Centres d'Art, Art en Résidence and Lora - Lorraine Réseau Art contemporain and Arts en résidence - French national network.
